Notes

John ADSIT III

Served under Capt. Abner Hawley's Company 8th Regiment of Albany, NY Militia. Outstanding record as a runner and athlete. He could outrun any Indian. Eighth Regiment, Albany County, NY

The 8th Regiment of the Albany Militia was the unit that manned West Point during the Revolution. They ranged over a wide area and saw quite a bit of action. The list below was compiled from scattered documents in the hands of the US Army Historian, and doesn't represent a "complete" list. Names of other men in this unit may be referenced in other documents stored elsewhere.

The period covered is from c. 1774-1789

Notes (con't)

This was the unit that captured British Major Adjutant General John Andre, and while under Benedict Arnold's command was to be betrayed to the British.
