Response in file to letter of inquiry dated September 8, 1938.

Reference is made to your letter in which you request the Revolutionary War record of Asahel Alford, a pensioner of Columbia, Herkimer County, New York in 1840

The data which follow are found in the papers on file in the pension claim, S.45184, based upon service of Asahel Alford in the Revolutionary War.

Asahel Alford enlisted in Becket, Massachusetts, January 1, 1776, served as private in Captain Moses Ashley's company, Colonel John Peterson's Massachusetts regiment was at Cedardon the St. Lawrence River where he was taken prisoner, was held about ten days and exchanged: he enlisted January 1, 1777 and served three years as private in Captain Moses Ashley's company, Colonel Joseph Vose's Massachusetts regiment and was discharged at the Highlands, New York State. During his service, he was in the battle when General Burgoyne was taken, in the battle of Long Island, and also at Monmouth.

Asahel Alford was allowed pension on his application executed September 22, 1819, at which time he resided in Sharon, Portage County, Ohio; he gave his age then as fifty-eight years, but did not state the date and place of his birth, nor the names of his parents.

In May 1822, the soldier had moved from Ohio to Columbia, Herkimer County, New York. His family at that time consisted of his wife, Lydia, aged sixty-two years, and a daughter, Melinda, aged about thirty years; the maiden name of the soldier's wife the date and place of their marriage and names of any other children are not shown. This pensioner died June 25, 1853; one Alonzo Ellwood was referred to as administrator of the soldier's estate in 1855.

In 1819, Elijah Alford was a resident of Sharon, Portage County, Ohio; he stated that he was intimately acquainted with Asahal Alford from his youth and was a near neighbor, but he did not state any relationship between them.
