

Portage street, gave two large parties last week.

Mrs. Hawkins and Paul spent Monday in Westfield the guests of Mrs. Frank Eggleston

Misses Helen and Julia Beaujean, of Mayville, were the guests of relatives over Sunday.

Miss Almeda House left on Monday for Tilden, Nebraska, where she will visit her brother.

The Misses Stone, who have been teaching in the South, are home for their summer vacation.

D. E. Batcheller wife and children launch. It is a and is suggestiv pleasures this s ward journey co Hudson river, 30 60 miles on the journey.

Mr. Ed. Cole this place but no are in town for a Cole is engaged ness with J. R. speaks in glowir and prospects of is located, and c joyed better hea