Be it remembered that in the Probate Court of Tuscarawas County and State of Ohio, on Thursday the 20th day of June AD 1861 at the town of New Philadelphia within said County before O. P. Taylor Judge of said Court among the records and proceedings then and there had appear the following:

Will of John Biltz

Philadelphia within said County before O. P. Taylor Judge of said Court among the records and proceedings then and there had appear the following:

In the matter of <sup>3</sup> The last will and testament of John Biltz deceased late of this the will of <sup>3</sup> County having been filed for probate thereupon came before John Biltz <sup>3</sup> Regnant and Conrad Schilling two of the attesting witnesses to said will and in open Court repeat will testified touching the due execution of said will which testimony was reduced to writing and filed with said will. And the Court being satisfied from the testimony that said will was duly executed and attested, and that the said testator at the time of executing the same was of full age and of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint. It is ordered by the Court that said will be and the same is hereby admitted to probate, and together with the testimony ordered to be recorded and there being no executor named in said will, thereupon came Anna Maria Biltz widow of said testator and in open Court declared to administer upon the estate of her deceased husband and requested that Conrad Schilling be appointed administrator with the will annexed of the estate of said testator. It is therefore ordered by the Court that letters of administration with the will annexed be granted and issued to the said Conrad Schilling and he is ordered to give bond in the sum of $200 to be conditioned according to law. George Weigand and Elijah Dechant are approved as securers and John Dechant, John Bremmer and Conrad Anthony are appointed appraisers of the personal property belonging to said estate.

And the same day appeared in open Court Anna Maria Biltz widow of the said John Biltz deceased, and after being fully advised of her rights made known her choice and election to accept and take the patrimonies of said will in her behalf made, in preference to her rights as such widow at law and requested that her said election be entered of record, which is accordingly so done.
