AGED MAN INJURED IN FALL FROM CAR

A. Buhler, 1951 Leoti street, fell from a Washington street car last night at Washington and Leoti streets and received a three-inch cut over his right eye, a split lip and a broken nose. Buhler, who is more than 70 years old, stated that he asked the motorman to stop the car and when it slacked speed he went to the lower step ready to get off. Just as he was stepping to the ground the motorman is said to have applied the power and the old man was hurled to the ground. He was brought to the receiving hospital by the police ambulance.
