RECORDER'S COURT.—Business before his Honor the Recorder, has been rather dull for the last month, but cold weather is coming, punches will then be in demand, and no doubt the "Police" are expecting a "revival." By the appearance of the Recorder's Docket this morning, it is likely to be gratified. Patrick Carrall,

John Doe and James Keney came in for fines of three dollars each, and costs. The above named gentlemen in preparing for the election had each taken one punch too much last evening, when, in order to not have them too severely punched, the "Stars" assisted them to a night's lodgings on the soft side of an oak plank in the City Cal booe. Another individual, for being intoxicated and creating a "breach" and disturbance of the peace, was likewise fined.
