Vegetables are selling readily and a considerable quantity of stock is finding its way to retailers. Celery especially is moving nicely, the Thanksgiving trade acking up all the choice stock available. Good Pascal celery is selling up to $2 per dozen. Shallots and parsley also in urgent demand and the morket cleaning despite the liberal arrivals of the last few days. Lettuce is high and scarce and a higher quotation Wednesday is not improbable. California head lettuce was quoted at $5.50 to $7 per crate, while leaf lettuce (bothouse) is selling around 60 cents to $1.10 per dozen heads.

is selling around to cents to $1.10 per dozen heads.
Fruit sales were good today and the market active all down the line. Prices generally continue much the same, with an exceptionally good demand for apples and oranges, Grappernit is bolding firm at the recent advance and unless increased shipments are received here during the pext couple of days another jump is likely.

The Mountain and Gulf Company's well on the Rodner lease, Peabody, Kansas, was drilled in yesterday. This well is estimated to be good for five hundred (500) barrels per day. The Company has a one-half interest in this lease.

The Mountain and Gulf Company's income should now be in excess of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($1,000) per day, or 30 per cent on the present market price of its capitalization. This revenue, together with the particularly favorable aspect as regards the Company's Salt Creek acreage, as well as its holdings with the Western States Company in Texas and other holdings in Louisiana, gives purchasers of Mountain and Gulf the advantage of combining the opportunity for good speculative profits, together with a present established value of considerable
