

vision, U. R. K. of P., whose headquarters are in Cleveland arrived early in the evening and after three numbers had been danced an inspection drill by Akron division, No. 21, was given for the benefit of the military officers.

They expressed themselves as highly pleased with the efficiency of the work. Col. Petzke's staff comprised Quartermaster Guensonhauser, Adjutant Al. Beckenbach and Sergeant Major S. P. Bondrean. Other Cleveland guests are: