

Dr. G. Tidyman of Montana was a guest of his brother, L. S. Tidyman, last week.

Dishman

The newly elected officers for the Parent-Teacher association were chosen Friday night at the first meeting of the school year are: C. P. Lang, president; C. P. Schimmel, vice president; Miss Florence Morrow, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Hardin are occupying the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hardin, while they are away during the school year.

Recovering.

Little Lois Mae Anderson, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Anderson, came home from the Deaconess hospital Saturday after being rushed there a few days ago

Property Moving.

Spokane valley property is moving very rapidly, according to reports from Tinsley & Johnson of Dishman. During the month of September sales reached $16,500. Gust Elf purchased a five-acre tract from J. W. Zerust, improved with four-room house, for $3800. C. M. Barnes, the modern home of C. E. Greenwood of Dishman for $3300. H. M. Hudson the four-room home of Leroy Cuvert, located on the Apple way, for $4000. Charles Dettlison of Davenport the 30-acre tract of W. B. Aspenwall of Hayden lake for $4700. Gardner Davis the 10-acre tract on Valleyway for $4000. H. W. Denaple on Walnut road, new five-room home under construction to Charles Craver for $4200.

Local News

The P. T. A. will hold their monthly meeting this evening in the high school auditorium. Mrs. A. W. Kiehn, the new president, will preside. Membership fees will be collected at this meeting. The fol-

VALU

The back-to in Italy is bel plans of the tion of swa around $13.12 statement fro society. With labor it is swampy lands into rich soil ing to the lat The reclama for 2,500,000

The land re with the deve Compared to horsepower a estimated th of this year t are of 2,000. Italian hydro can produce a high as 10.00 to now, the h ions Italy to to an anthraci of July, pow reached the her allowatt crase of 10 first seven m The utmost ches and w frusely vntu of. Thanks water cultiv atain aim which will al case, in the supporting.

COLUMB WIN

Favorable lumbia basin the meeting tives of the of Commerce Garrecht told out Farmer the Spokane

Photo: Associated Press