

STANFORD CLASS OF '21 PLANS REUNION NOV. 9

Los Angeles Times (1886-Current File); Oct 11, 1951; ProQuest Historical Newspapers Los Angeles Times (1881 - 1970) pg. A24

STANFORD CLASS OF '21 PLANS REUNION NOV. 9

Members of the Stanford University Class of 1921 will hold their 13th reunion in Los Angeles Friday evening, Nov. 9, prior to the Stanford-SC football game. The 1921 class will join with the Stanford Club of Los Angeles in a pregame cocktail party in the Embassy Room of the Ambassador.

The reunion announcement was made by Jack Patrick of San Francisco, permanent class president and former Stanford football captain. Patrick has appointed Earle Crowe of Pasadena and Dorothy Marston Ormsby of Palo Alto as cochairmen of the affair.

Southern California members of the arrangements committee include Ruth Jones Wright, vice-chairman; Kenneth Wright, J. E. Simpson, Wendell Kinney, Homer Mitchell, Maxwell King, Frank Cowgill, Edna Peterson Taylor, Mortimer Kline, Dorothy Johnston Kyle, George I. Devor, Lauder W. Hodges and Floyd Kallam of Los Angeles; Chrysell Dunker Kiler, Santa Barbara; Helen Bentz Jeffers, La Jolla; Bernice McDivitt Hertel and Francis Hertel, Ventura, and Walter Phelps, Santa Paula.

Picnic Slated by Old-Timers

Members of Hollywood's pioneer families will gather for an old-timers picnic, Sunday, Oct. 21, noon until 4 p.m. at the North Hollywood Recreational Hall and surrounding grounds, Chandler and Cahuenga Blvds., under sponsorship of the North Hollywood Chamber of Commerce.

Attending the affair will be old-time residents who remember "the good old days" when North Hollywood was known as Lankershim—home of the peach—and when the area had a population of about 500 persons and when the entire district was known as Toluca.

Fred Weddington, banker and civic leader, will serve as chairman of the affair. He will be assisted by Ted Rathburn, Howard Failor, Dwight Miller, Richard Denaple, George Osborne and Frances Muir Pomeroy.