

Kiwanis Club Celebrates 45th Year

NORTH HOLLYWOOD —Fifteen members of the Kiwanis Club with a total of 480 years affiliation were honored at the organization's 54th birthday celebration.

The club was chartered in 1922 when North Hollywood was known as Lan-kershim. Judge C. Newell Carns was the first president and was awarded the framed original charter at the anniversary meeting.

Others who received pins and scrolls included Charles C r a w s h a w, 45 years; George S. Bush, 40 years; William Park New-comer, Francis Foster and Vernon F. Steen, 35 years each; Richard W. Denaple, Harry Kurkian, the Rev. Edward N. Spirer and John H. Talbot, 30 years each, and James P. Dumas, Frank T. Hennessey, Jack Humason, Everett F. Oldfield and H. W. Schenck, all 25 years.