

THE PRESS.

Thursday, - September 7, 1882

W. Y. MILLER DRUGGIST

☞ Lamps of all kinds—a variety always on hand.

☞ W. Y. Miller makes a specialty of Spectacles and Eye-Glasses and can fit any eye.

☞ In Fishing Tackle of all kinds I can't be beat. Come and see me and convince yourself.

☞ If you want strictly Pure Drugs you can find no better place to buy than at W. Y. Miller's.

☞ Of pure White Lead and Oil I only keep the best and sell at the lowest prices.

W. Y. MILLER.

☞ W. Y. Miller has a large variety of Bird Cages, suitable for Red Birds, Mocking Birds, and Canaries, which he is offering low.

☞ Of Paint, White Wash, Hair and all kinds of Brushes, you will find W. Y. Miller has a good assortment, and prices way down.

The finest ink in the world can be made from the Diamond Dyes. One ten-cent package

MARRIED.—Sunday, September 10th in El Dorado by Rev. J. L. Stratford, Mr. J. C. PERRY and Miss CLARA BRUMBACK, both of Carribog, Butler county.

C. B. Daughters has purchased the two vacant lots between the residence of M. D. Seymour and Mr. McCaskey's place and will build upon them immediately.

BOARDING.—Four gentlemen can find board and lodging at the residence of Mrs. D. L. Knowles on Mechanic street, two doors south of Baptist church.

John Heath says he had to tell the grand jury where he got whisky, for two or three of the jurymen were with him when he got it, and he dared not lie about it.

Frank Barnes, of El Dorado, and Austin Brumback, of Milton, left the first of the week to attend the State University at Lawrence during the present year.

Old man Troupe, of Douglass, was convicted of violation of the prohibitory law, but a flaw in the evidence saved the old man the penalty attaching to the second offence.

The El Dorado Blue Stockings beat the Peabody boys at a game of base ball on the fair grounds last Friday. The score stood 11 to 0.