

Dr. J. A. Godfrey, of Towanda, was arraigned before Justice Conine the past week, for selling intoxicants contrary to law. He was convicted on seven counts and fined $700 and costs, $46.85. He has appealed the case. In the evidence it appears that a man named Dixon and John Heath are sadly afflicted with rheumatism and so forth, and that it takes frequent "applications" to keep down the ravages of disease.