

Died, November 3rd, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Hayman, Mrs. Esther Heath. She had been an invalid for years and had suffered much. She was born in Marshall county, Illinois. She with her husband, John Heath, came to Butler county in 1869, and settled in Towanda township. Mr. Heath died two years ago last September. They were among the earlier settlers and endured the privations incident to new country life. She died in the triumphs of the Christian's hope. A large number of Fairview people followed her remains, Sunday afternoon, where they met a large number of her old neighbors. At the Christian church Rev. I. Mooney preached the funeral discourse, after which she was laid to rest in the Towanda cemetery. She was fifty-eight years of age at her death,
