

I heard a lady say recently that Mrs Maud Hayman is always helping some one. Now she is assisting in the sewing for the four little ones of her brother, George Heath, his wife having died prior to his removal from Illinois.