Parley Heath, who was in Oklahoma City last week tells about the shooting of Capt. W. L. Couch. He says the man Adams who shot him was one of the claimants of the quarter section which Will took and which he is endeavoring to hold; that Adams is an scitable man and hardly responsible for his acts. Capt. Couch and his son Ira were putting up a fence when Adams attempted to prevent them, and drew a revolver, but was too quick enough with it, Couch getting the
