

A broken bough full of unripe peaches from John Heath, and a long limb full of rich ripe cherries from I.
Mooney were among the last Saturday's specimens at this office. The west part of the county can lay it over the east in everything but floods.

Mr. J. A. Bowden took a drive to pro-

hib
to
of