

"Johnny comes marching along,"

Mr. John Heath returned from his visit to Illinois yesterday morning the better for his trip and looking like new. He wears a handsome silver watch and gold chain with his name and date of his birth inscribed on the inside, a testimonial of love from his brothers and sister at Goodhope, Ill. John made his first call at the Herald Office in order to be in time and see that copies of the paper reached his relations back east, whom he had so lately left.
