John Heath ran for road boss on the independent ticket and made the remark "God help us all and may we all be elected"