

our residence the Saturday before.

Frank Heath was accidentally struck down by the bat during the game on Saturday and picked up unconscious. He did not get over it till the next morning.