

School Notes.

Rhetoricals were observed in the High school Friday afternoon. Among the many good pieces was a debate by the debating club. The question was, Resolved, that protective tariff is not beneficial to American people. Burton Black's and Willie Myers' debates were especially good. The negative side won.

Miss Flossie Leland is on the sick list.

Miss Newberry and Robert McCully were visitors Friday.

Some of the seniors are becoming anxious on the question of reciprocal love.

One of the book-keeping class on being asked what the abbreviation Mdse. meant, replied "mesdames."

The following pupils of the High school made an average of 95 per cent or over during the last examination:

11th grade—Frank White, Eva Swain, Millie Hazelrigg and Laura Heiser.

10th grade—Vinnie Brown, Anna King, Ethel Smith, Arthur Davis and Charles Palmer.

9th grade—Rachel Adsit, Grace Gillespie, Mabel McCarty and Delmar Spangler.
