

High School Notes.

Rhetoricals in the various rooms Friday afternoon.

Ethel Smith has returned, after a visit with friends in Girard.

Our attendance this month was 97 per cent.

Earl Mooney of the ninth was absent part of last week, caused by a sprained ankle, too much jumping.

Those making highest average, in their respective grades, during recent examination, were Juanita Adsit, of the ninth, Rachel Adsit of the tenth, Ana King and Cora Mooney of eleventh, all having an average of 99 per cent.

Edith Houston, of the tenth, is absent, sick.

The Seniors are tugging away at the 14th. chapter of Cæsar, wishing, since it was to have been Cæsar's fate to be slain, that Brutus had not delayed quite so long.

Manners at the table was the subject of Prof. Tomlin's talk Tuesday morning.
