

---

A buzzard with a small bell on its neck was discovered in the timber by Frank Heath on the farm of Wm. Davis on West Branch of Whitewater. It had probably been caught and belled while young.

---