

MRS. HEATH WINS.

A year or so ago Frank Heath of Towanda was killed by a shot gun in his own hands. The circumstances surrounding his death pointed to suicide, but no human eye witnessed the deed. The family was at dinner when Heath left the table, went out to a corn crib, a shot was heard and his lifeless body was soon found.

He had $1,000 insurance in the Modern Woodmen of America, and that order refused to pay, claiming exemption under a suicide clause.

The jury gives the widow a verdict for the face of the policy and costs.

The result is a feather in the cap of Messrs. Mooney & Stratford, who win over a fine array of legal talent, attorneys for the Woodmen.
