

Arrange Parties In Midway City

MIDWAY CITY, Oct. 19.—Two parties are planned in the Midway City Community Sunday school to honor winners in the membership contest which closed Sunday, with the "Blues," captained by Lois Braybrooks, winning over the "Reds" and their captain, Donald Hall. The first social affair will be held Saturday afternoon in the home of the Sunday school superintendent, Mrs. N. A. Nelson. This will be for the classes taught by Mrs. Fred Foley, Mrs. Clifford Jones, Miss Emmaetta Hart and Miss Doris Hart.

A party for the adult classes of which teachers are Mrs. Justina Lowry, Mrs. Cleo Hazard, Mrs. Burt Heath, Mrs. Rhodes, the Rev. Clifford Jones, Miss Geraldine Logan and Mrs. Overmeyer is slated for the evening of October 26.
