

HAND:

Buckner. Henry farmed on section 4, Walnut Grove Township for several years and later moved to Shenandoah, Iowa.

-----, died Jul 15, 1857; age 44y 11m 25d. Initials, or possibly part of a name, are the only other readable portions of this stone; G. LE.

-----, -----, age 35y 15d.

-----, Lilly M., dau of W. H. & A. S-----, died -----.

A partial check of death records on file at the McDonough County Clerk's Office in Macomb reveal the following persons reportedly interred in this cemetery; however, no stones or other markers were located for these persons:

WILLIAMSON, Bessie; died in Emmet Township on Sep 18, 1878; age 11m 10d.; born in Good Hope; cause of death--brain concussion caused from a fall from a chair. (A Williamson family owned  $\frac{1}{2}$  of lot #237 in the Good Hope Cemetery also #211.)

KIMES, Ina C.; died Sep 29, 1878; age 9y 5m 21d; cause of death--diphtheria.

HEATH, Eliza S.; died Jul 17, 1879; age 48y 6m 13d.; born in Rochester, N.Y. (In about 1857, a Heath family moved to this county from New York and settled in Sciota Township. Eliza S. Heath's body was moved to the Good Hope Cemetery--lot #163--on Jan 23, 1880.)

Notes, Corrections, Additions, and Changes

Eliza S. STEARNS

Wife of
Wm Heath
Samuel's oldest son