

Theo. Shepherd thinks of moving back to his house in Wilmington. We will be glad to have them return to the old home.

JO. HALLER'S little 6-year-old girl broke through the ice on his pond last Saturday and was drowned. She was buried here last Monday.

James Cripps and his brother Charley returned from Topeka a few days ago. They sold the furs for $100, and they think they will have as many more before the season is over.
