

—Our old friend, Theo. Shepherd, of Wilmington, was a Burlingame visitor last Friday and Saturday. On Friday Mr. Sheppard sent to The Enterprise office a large and luscious watermelon. Our office devil, whose judgement as to a good article in the shape of melons we have always found to be right, says it was the best he ever tasted.