

Wilton Boatright and Theodore Shepherd of Wilmington left, Thursday, for a visit of a month in the East. They will go to Cleveland and other points in Ohio, and will see the Buffalo exposition before returning home. Mr. Shepherd has been at work at his business in Wilmington for sixteen years with but two days' lay off, and he justly feels that he has a right to this vacation.