

W. A. Shepherd installed a fine new American phone for George Horton this week. George was so tickled with it that he called up all the neighbors.